Lake Tahoe, and the smile of the landlords is as the opening of day in the east.A stray bullet from some careless target shooter knocked the pipe out of the mouth of a man standing on Virginia street bridge yesterday morning.No. 2 Engine Co. had a meeting last night and decided to postpone election of officers until the next meeting. Arrangements were made for the Fourth.A local granger says he cannot get pound trout at Pyramid Lake. Inside the trout was a 4 pound sucker, and in the sucker was a half-pound chub.

Singular to say, there was nothing inside the chub but worms.E. R. Smith, the well-known lumberman, was in Reno yesterday attending to the adjustment of his loss by the burning of the Verdi mill. Mr. Smith says he is yet undecided as to what they will do about building their mill.The school children are desired to meet at the school house, on the morning of the Fourth at 9 o'clock, for the purpose of participating in the proce-sion. Messrs. Sands and Bristow will be there to arrange them in proper shape.

Auburn Mill.

The Auburn mill has been leased by the Mount Potosi Consolidated Mining Company of Columbus district for a year, and the shipment of ore to the mill has begun. By this arrangement the companies can have its ores hauled and reduced at an expense of $12 per ton, as against $23.25 per ton under previous methods, while a greater percentage of metal can be saved. A large quantity of ore has been accumulated for shipment, and the mine is developing well at various points, under the active management of Captain J. M. Day, and the new board of directors. Following are some of the average assays: Tunnel No. 2, west drift—$51.85 silver, $4.85 gold; total, $56.60—$135.68 gold, $59.07 silver, $104.75. Back ledge—gold $5 to $20; silver $200 to $300. Tunnel No. 1, front ledge—silver, $50 to $100, gold $5 to $70, Tunnel No. 1, back ledge—silver $250 to $1,000; gold $5 to $10. The mill will be kept running steadily.

Order of Exercises.

The Committee of Arrangements have arranged the following order of exercises for the 4th:

Prayer by the Chaplain.

Reading of the Declaration of Independence.

Chorus (fifty voices)—"America."

Drake's Address to the American Flag.

Poem.

Chorus—"Star Spangled Banner."

Oration.

Chorus—"The Heavens are Telling."

Benediction.

Music by the band.

They meet again on Saturday night to make all final arrangements.

Unstamped Letters.

The Postmaster General has issued an order that after July 1 all letters without stamps, or with insufficient postage, shall, instead of being sent to the Dead Letter office, be held, by the Postmaster, and the persons to whom they are addressed be notified that the letter will be forwarded on receipt of the proper amount of postage.

This will work a hardship on many, whose letters will be delayed for a cent stamp, when they would gladly pay much more to assure prompt service. Better kick over that decision before it goes into effect.

Will Not Order Them Out.

Our reporter interviewed Governor Kinkead, who is Commander in Chief of the army, as to his intentions about ordering an inspection of the militia here on the 4th. He said he could not do it, because no money had been appropriated to pay the expenses, and it would be folly for him to order them out and not provide means to pay for it. He would like to very much, and thought inspections ought to be held at least once a year. He hoped enough soldiers would accept Reno's invitation to make the military display a creditable one.

Loss of Honey.

Geo. Alt informed us yesterday that he had lost about $1,500 during the past two years in honey. The grasshoppers had destroying the blossoms from which the bees gather their sweets and as a consequence many of the bees died, and but little honey was gathered. He does not think the grasshoppers will do five dollars worth of damage in this valley this year. The late season and cold damp weather kills them off. This is good news. We can well afford to have our Winter long drawn out if it frees us of this scourge. The cold nights keep the crops back considerably.

Tea Time.

Ye Hung, or Chinese Good-day, was celebrated by the Chinese of this city Monday and Tuesday. This is said to be a sort of Chinese Masonic anniversary, and is generally celebrated by the best class of Chinamen. It is said that the great dragon makes his hideous appearance and engages in a vigorous contest with his adversaries and endeavor to be "boss of the road," but whether he will success or not remains to be seen.

Comstock's Fourth.

The Virginia people are working hard to get up a creditable display for next Tuesday. They have collected $581.25 already. Judge Leonard, of Carson, will deliver the oration; W. G. Hyde, of Gold Hill, the poem; J. S. Young read the Declaration and Rev. Mr. Simpson act as chaplain.

G. F. Hill will act as Grand Marshal, and Dr. Bergstein as President of the Day.

Railroad Weed.

The Truckee Republican says: In the neighborhood of 60,000 cords of railroad wood will be delivered on the track between Verdi and the Summit the coming season. This will put about $170,000 in circulation here and furnish work to a great many men and teams.

Cemetery Plot.

Amity Lodge, No. 8.K. of P., has purchased two and a half acres of land in Sander's cemetery for a burial place for their deceased brothers. The plot will be fixed up in good shape right away.

Contenting Mining Patents.

The bill recently introduced by Senator Chilcott, of Colorado, provides that when an adverse claim is filed, the parties so contesting the patent shall, in case they fail to sustain their claim by proof, be liable to the applicant for the patent or the grantees for the bill of expenses of the damages which shall be incurred by or result from the filing of such protest or objection. The object of the bill is to prevent annoyances and actual blackmail against applicants for patents. In many cases parties having no shadow of title to a mining claim will file an adverse claim in order to be bought off and paid for not bothering the owners any longer. This is done so frequently in mining regions, and is such a source of annoyance to owners of property that the bill is of true public benefit and ought to pass. It has the approval of Secretary Teller, as well as Senator Hill, Chairman of the Committee on Mines and Mining, to which committee it was referred. An amendment will be added, requiring parties filing adverse claims to give security for costs.

Military orders.

Special Orders No. 21, just issued by the Commander in Chief, is of interest to the Reno soldiers. The Sarsfields have evidently disbanded:

I. The commanding officer of Company "C" [Infantry] First Regiment, N. S. M., at Gold Hill, Nevada, will turn over to Colonel F. C. Lord, First Regiment, N. S. M., all military property belonging to the State for which he is accountable, and forward receipts as directed in Section 23 of the Military Law of Nevada.

II. Colonel F. C. Lord, First Regiment, N. S. M., upon receiving said military property, will ship the ordnance and ordnance stores to Captain Abram Moger, Commanding Company "I," [Infantry] at Reno, Nevada, and will forward the balance of said property to this office direct.

Our Sentiments.

The following from an exchange expresses our sentiments exactly: "Marriages, births and deaths should be published, but we can't be presumed to know the facts concerning them unless somebody tells us. The editor has no time to attend all the weddings and funerals, and no inclination to attend the births. So bring or send us the news."

District Court.

The case of Stephens vs. Whistler was on trial Monday and yesterday, involving the title to a tract of land on the meadows. Boardman and Alexander are attorneys for plaintiff and Cain & Webster for defendant. Testimony all in and argument set for to-morrow morning.

Deputy Assessor Stoddard had charge of a China wash house for a while yesterday. He went to collect the poll taxes, but of course they put him off. He would not have it that way and began to pile flatirons and other property outside the door, and sent for a dray. This business-like proceeding brought the Massachusetts brothers to their senses and they rustled the money.

The officers are trying to compel the Indians to leave town after dark. It is hard work, for they rebel and show fight. Night before last officer Hogan had a skirmish with four drunken squaws, who refused to leave when ordered to. He broke his cane over one of their backs. He had his eye on the Celestial who sold them the whisky, but the fellow escaped.

Secretary Folger did the proper thing when he declined to allow those 60,000 Chinese in Cuba to go back to China through the United States. It was evidently a scheme to scatter these people along the route, and thus practically nullify the new law.
